BOOK SYNOPSIS

CCBD, a division of the Council for Exceptional Children, is an international and professional organization committed to promoting and facilitating the education and general welfare of children and youth with behavioral and emotional disorders. CCBD actively pursues quality educational services and program alternatives for persons with behavioral disorders, advocates for the needs of such children and youth, emphasizes research and professional growth as vehicles for better understanding of behavioral disorders, and provides professional support for persons who are involved with and serve children and youth with behavioral disorders. DCDT is a division of the Council for Exceptional Children. Its mission is to promote national and international efforts to improve the quality of and access to career/vocational and transition services, increase the participation of education in career development and transition goals, and influence policies affecting career development and transition services for persons with disabilities.
